The Progress of the Democratic Canvass. The Movements of the Third Party-Renomination of Henderson to Congress.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 24 .- [Special.]-Governor Holt appointed to-day Judge James C. MacRae as associate justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy which occurred by the death of Judge Davis. There were many candidates, amongst whom were some of the most distinguished men in the State. Judge MacRae was on the superior court bench for nine years, but was defeated for a renomination three years ago by Judge McIver, since which time he has been devoting himself to the time he has been devoting himself to the practice of law at Fayetteville, his home. There seems to be general satisfaction over the appointment, as he is considered to be one of the first lawyers of the State.

There was a very large meeting of the Cleveland-Carr Club here to-night to take the initiatory steps for receiving Hon. Adlai Stevenson, the candidate for Vice-President, who will make an address at this place early next month. Committees on reception, finance, transportation and programme were elected. All this section of the State will be represented here in the reception. Excursions from the surrounding country will be run by the various lines of railroads. Considerable activity in political circles is noticeable, and the campaign is fairly opened.

Mr. Williams Declines the Nomination. WELDOW, N. C., August 24.—[Special.]—Willis R. Williams, of Pitt county, for sev-Willow, N. C., August 24.—[Special.]—
Wills R. Williams, of Pitt county, for several years Democratic senator for that district, was recently nominated for the same position by the Third party convention. He has just published a card declining the nomination. He said: "You will find me now as in the past ever ready to give my humble services to the grand old party to which I have devoted the best part of my life. For over forty years I have voted the Democratic ticket, and have often made sacrifices dictated more by zeal than prudence. I am more than ever convinced that we should return to the teachings of Jefferson, Jackson and others." Mr. Williams has been for several years past and is now president of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, and understands the needs of the farmers as well as any man in the State.

It is reported here this morning that M. L. Wood, of Bertie, had joined the Third party. Mr. Wood represented his county in the last Legislature, and was a candidate before the Democratic convention for the congressional nomination in this district. He is president of his county Alliance, and has always been a staunch Democrat. The execut is not hally and here. Mr. Wood is a of the insane asylum at Raleigh.

One of the best Alliance men in Wilson county and a man of position, prominence and influence said recently: "The Weaverites claim everything. They are lying outrageously. There are not two hundred of them in the county." Wilson county usually gives a Democratic majority of about twalve hundred. about twelve hundred.

The Democrats and Republicans have both nominated straight tickets in Warren county, and the Third party will also put out a full ticket. The Democrats nominated J. P. Leach for the Senate and W. W. Long, the present representative, for the House. The Republicans have nominated negroes for the Legislature, and the Third party will do likewise at their convention which will meet at Warrenton on Saturday. Captain E. A. Thorne, the Third nominee for Congress in this district, remains closely at home. He is a farmer, and may be busily employed in outting and curing tobacco, of which his crop largely consists. He has made no speeches during the campaign, and thus far no appointments have been made for him. It was thought at one time that he might withdraw, but if there were any grounds for such hope it has not been very apparent. If he should withdraw another candidate would he immediately put in his place.

Mr. E. W. Pou, of Johnston county, made a speech this afternoon at Enfield to a large crowd, which had gathered there to hear him. He made some telling points against both Republican and Third party people.
At Littleton to-day a large sale of lots took place, both at Panacea Springs, three miles out, and also in town. Many lots were sold. One feature of the day was an abun-dant dinner of barbeque and other edibles. To-night a grand german is in prograss at the Bon Air Hotel, participated in by forty-two couples. The opening of the bank here has given a new impetus to business and the town generally. Negotiations are now in progress looking to the enlargement of one of the largest business enterprises in the place, and several families have moved here recently. Weldon is now on the upward grade and evidences of improvement are seen daily.

Reunion of North Carolina Grays, Wixston, N. C., August 24.—[Special.]—
The last reunion of North Carolina Grays, Company I, Sixth regiment, will be held at Cedar Fork, in Durham county, on Friday, October 7th. The morning will be devoted to the re-presentation of the colors by Mrs. Lowe, response by Lieutenant D. C.
Gunter, historic addresses on the Sixth regiment by Major R. W. York and calling the roll by Sergeant Williams for the last time on earth. In the evening there will be short addresses by invited veterans. There will Julius Reynolds, a young man who was Reunion of North Carolina Grays.

Julius Reynolds, a young man who was arrested upon the charge of being implicated in the murder of Solathial Swaine in Guilford county last week, was given a pre-liminary hearing in Greensboro Monday. He proved that he was not near the house when Swaine was killed, and he was fore set free. Charles Reynolds and Marion Headen are still in custody, and will be put on trial for their lives next week.

Hon. R. A. Doughton, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, addressed a large audience at Lewisville, this county, to-day. Mr. Doughton has spoken at various points in this State already, and he ports Democracy growing in public favor It is learned that Division Superintendent Berkley, of the Richmond and Danville road, will move his office on September 1st from Richmond to Greensboro, Rooms are now being fitted up for him at the latter Leading colored Republicans tell me that unless the white Republicans give them a man or two on the ticket this fall they will nominate a straightout negro ticket in Forsyth. There are now 179 convicts in the State penitentiary and about 1.000 outside. Of the latter all save 125, who are on the Great Falls causl, are on the farms near Weldon and at Castle Hance. None are now on railway work.

The Third party in Rockingham county nominated a man for register of deeds who could neither read nor write his name. The nominee makes a statement that he could not accept the office if elected on account

The first rain in several weeks fell here yesterday. The corn and tobacco cross have been badly damaged in this section by the drought.

Mr. Henderson Kenominated.

SALISBURY, N. C., August 25. —[Special.]—o-day three hundred and thirty-six Demoeratic delegates from ten of the best couneratic delegates from ten of the best counties in this State met in convention to nominate a candidate for Congress from this (Seventh) district. Hon. M. H. Pennix of Davidson county, called the meeting to order. J. L. Scales, of Iredell, was made temporary chairman, and J. R. Whichard, of Rowan, seventary. The usual computation temporary chairman, and J. R. Whichard, of Rowan, secretary. The usual committees were appointed. Hon. J. G. Hall, of Catawba, was made permanent chairman, and J. R. Whichard, secretary. Hon. John S. Henderson was then renominated by acclamation with a rising vote. H. S. Puryear of Cabarrus, L. C. Caldwell of Iredell and A. Laseer of Iredell were voted for as candidates for district elector, and, on the third ballot Hon. A. Laseer was nominated. A ballot Hon. A. Laseer was nominated.
